

printed, you're sitting in between Yosl and Zuni. Did you love them? You're looking straight to the camera and not at them or the puppets. They're not looking at you or them either.

Fayere Desie, I would like to get to know you. I would like, with your permission, to translate you. Where were you born? How were your parents like? Where did you grow up? How? When did you meet the MODICUT guys?
